

About DriveTime

DriveTime is a company that specializes in selling high quality used cars to those with poor credit history. We understand that people's credit is not perfect, and that they may be suffering from the current economic conditions or other unexpected events. We feel that people should be given the chance to better their future, instead of worrying about the past, which is exactly why DriveTime handles 99% of all of our own financing!

If you're looking for a great used car from one of our Richmond DriveTime locations, then you will not have a problem finding one! We have several Richmond stores that are located for your convenience and that have a great selection of used cars. When you visit one of our locations you will be greeted by a welcoming staff who are ready to help you find your perfect vehicle.

We know that people are only human and that we all make mistakes, which is why DriveTime has actually been helping people restore their credit history by buying cars from us since 2002. We report on-time payments to the credit authorities, which has an impact on your overall credit score. - Complete our short online application and submit it
- Wait just TWO minutes to find out whether you're approved!
